To whom it may concern

As you may be aware, Friday holds special significance for Muslims, marked by the congregational Jummah Salah (Friday prayer). It is an obligation for all Muslims to attend this prayer service, and we appreciate the understanding and support that educational institutions like yours extend to their Muslim students in observing their religious practices.

Considering the information provided, we kindly request your approval for your student to be excused from class to attend the Jummah prayer at the Princeton Islamic Center every Friday. Our mosque offers two Jummah prayer services commencing at 1:40 PM and 2:30 PM, each lasting approximately 30-45 minutes. To facilitate attendance, we also seek your understanding in allowing your student sufficient time for transportation to and from the mosque.

Furthermore, we kindly ask for this absence to be considered an excused one based on religious exemption. Should you have any inquiries or require additional details, please feel free to contact our offices via phone or email. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Waleed Rasheed

President, Princeton Islamic Center
