To whom it may concern

Ramadan Greetings,

I hope this letter finds you well. As we approach the holy month of Ramadan, we appreciate your support in accommodating Muslim students observing fasting during this sacred time.

Ramadan is a month of spiritual reflection, prayer, and fasting from dawn to sunset. During this time, some students may choose to refrain from participating in lunch periods or physically demanding activities such as gym class. We kindly request that _____ of grade _____ be accommodated accordingly, should they opt out of these activities.

If any alternative arrangements are needed, please feel free to reach out. We appreciate your understanding and commitment to fostering an inclusive environment for all students.

Thank you for your support, and we wish you a peaceful and blessed Ramadan.

Sincerely,

Waleed Rasheed

President, Princeton Islamic Center
